Sonja is a graduate of Pacific Lutheran University and has been a church cantor at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church for 15 years, as well as a professional soprano soloist. She has had classical vocal training in English, Norwegian, Latin, Italian, French and Spanish, and extensive repertoire performance experience. She has cantored and soloed at Masses, weddings, memorial services, Norwegian lodge events, and women's retreats throughout the Seattle area, and is an educator and devoted mother of four young adult children. Her CDs feature the added musical talents of the string trio "Trio Con Brio" as well as David Kellogg (former music director at St. Francis Parish) on piano, and two of her children on keyboard/flute, and vocals.
